Warehouses Close Their Doors and Auctioneers and Buyers Leave For Home.

The tobacco market is over in Mt. Sterling and the three warehouses have closed their doors and the out-of-town buyers and employees have gone to their homes. There was a little under seven and one-half million pounds sold during the season.

The gentlemen in charge of the warehouses here gave clean, courteous service and everybody got a square deal.

WOMEN FORM HEALTH LEAGUE

Will Make Canvass of City and County in Endeavor to Raise Necessary Funds.

Twenty-five or thirty representative women of the city assembled at the Court House Friday afternoon as committees from different societies, clubs, etc., in an effort to launch the Montgomery County Health and Welfare League. After being refused an appropriation by the city and county officials, on account of their lack of funds, these wide-awake women, backed by Dr. W. R. Thompson, local Health Officer, and Miss Marian Williamson, Organizer of the State Tuberculosis Commission, decided to undertake the work and are determined to succeed. It is their intention to get one thousand members at $1.00 per year dues, more if one desires to give it (a five or ten dollar bill will not be turned down). Mrs. Ben R. Turner was appointed President and W. H. Strossman, Jr., Treasurer. Mrs. Turner divided the town into districts and twenty-five to thirty women are to start out on a campaign for members to the League on Wednesday and Thursday. Clubs, literary societies, missionary societies, and every other organization in the city have taken an active interest in the fight against the Great White Plague, and committees from each will serve on the canvassing committee. A "Country Club" to take up the work in the county is being organized and the move is gaining headway. The various organizations who are working for the League will give charity balls, silver teas, movie benefits, and various other forms of amusements in order to raise the funds. Col. L. M. Maus, of Frankfort, Secretary of the State Tuberculosis Commission, was present at the meeting and gave an instructive address on the work. The ladies assigned to the campaign work by the President are Mrs. W. P. Oldham and Miss Lottie Rogers, first district; Mrs. W. S. Lloyd and Mrs. Ben R. Turner, second district; Mrs. John Burbridge and Miss Emily Robinson, third district; Mrs. J. A. Vansant and Mrs. H. R. French, fourth district; Miss Susette Johnson and Mrs. John Speer, fifth district; Mrs. Will Eubank and Mrs. John W. Jones, sixth district; Mrs. Henry Senieur and Mrs. E. T. Reis, seventh district; Miss Lucy Clay Woodford and Miss Allee Young, eighth district; Mrs. A. B. Oldham and Mrs. John Walsh, ninth district; Mrs. Hoffman Wood and Mrs. E. Y. Nelson, third ward. Tuberculosis has been very fatal in this city and county in recent years and the work is badly needed and is very commendable. The women, who never quit anything until they win out, are confident of the successful organization of the League.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the Christian church met in regular session last Wednesday afternoon in the annex of the church. There was a good attendance and every one enjoyed the interesting program and the social hour, at which Mrs. A. B. Oldham and Mrs. W. O. Pierce were hostesses. Mrs. Mary Biggerstaff was the efficient leader and Miss Louise Tabb presided. The leader read the Scripture lesson, after opening song; Mrs. Maria Hoffman led in prayer; Mrs. Anderson gave an article on Latin-America; Mrs. William Huls told in a very attractive manner the story of "The Madonna of the Tear"; Mrs. Henry Senieur gave a splendid review of a chapter of "The King's Highway," which gave Japan's response to the Gospel. Hidden questions and answers were next enjoyed, and were led by Miss Louise Tabb. One of the principal features of the meeting was the address made by Miss Marian Williamson, representative of the State Tuberculosis Commission, and who is in this city organizing a Health and Welfare League. After a short business period a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and home-made candies. Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Oldham were assisted in serving by Miss Thelma Pierce and Master David Oldham.

PROTECT OUR MERCHANTS

Violators of Occupation Ordinance Should Be Reported and Prosecuted Promptly.

In the last few days we have heard a number of local merchants complaining that the ordinance governing the occupation tax, etc., was not being rigidly enforced. They claimed that there were men canvassing the city selling various articles such as clothing, druggets, etc., and that these men represented no store and paid no license and seemed under the impression that the local policemen should look after this matter. After an investigation we have ascertained that no officer can make an arrest without a warrant, unless he sees the offense committed and we would suggest that any merchant that knows the law is being violated to swear out a warrant for the offender and we are sure that the officials will see that the law is enforced promptly and impartially. The local merchant should be given all the protection to which he is entitled under the ordinance.

The Roof of the World

Copyright 1916, General Roofing Manufacturing Co.

"From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand,
From many a distant river,
From many a palm tree plain,
They call us to deliver Their heads from sun and rain."

You will find CERTAIN-TEED affording equal protection from the snow and ice of the Arctic, and the sun and rain of the Tropics. It is literally "the roof of the world."

Making roofing is the General's chief business. He makes one-third of all the roll roofing made in America—thirty-nine other manufacturers make the balance. Such predominance is due to the General's ability to make the highest quality roofing at the lowest cost.

Every advantage that men, money, mills and machinery can offer is used to increase production, maintain quality and lower the cost. The result is that today CERTAIN-TEED, the world's best quality, costs less than inferior roofing cost ten years ago.

CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with a scientific blend of soft asphalts, the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

LOYALTY WITHOUT WIND

True loyalty does not consist of getting out in public and shouting to the winds of the glories of our country and how we can lick the world with our hands tied behind us.

We have a few such "patriots," but they have never set the world afire and we never expect to see them fighting for their country. When bullets are singing and shells are shrieking such "patriots" are usual found industriously fishing in financial waters far to the rear.

What we need is patriotism that impels a man to love his country for what it is and for what it has done for himself and for the rest of mankind. When a man is imbued with this brand of loyalty he will give even life itself for his country when the need arises, and he will have no self plaudits to hurl at his fellow men in glorification of his own acts. He will not dispense wind.

We have many just such true patriots right in our own midst, but they are quietly pursuing their daily routine, hoping and praying that the government may steer the ship of state safely through the treacherous waters without loss of honor or dignity.

Today they are simply loyal citizens of the republic. Tomorrow they may be heroes who have fought and died for their country.

JOY O' LIFE

Have you ever dreamed as I have dreamed,

O' the wil o' the wisp o' fame— Have you fought and sought as I have,

And found it an empty name? Have you hoped with hope, as I have hoped,

Till your heart was wet with tears,

And found, as I, that sorrows abound

In the long, long line o' years? Have you tried and failed, as once I failed,

Have you conquered at last to smile? If so, you'll learn, as I have learned,

That the game, after all's worth while,

And some day you'll know, as I too know,

That spite the sorrow and pain, The heart-woven strife, the toil o' life—

You'd live it all over again!

The styles are of such a varied nature you will be able to wear one of several different effects and be right.

The most popular effect is a suit the coat of which is plainly tailored with a belt effect at normal waist line. The skirt of coat is slightly gathered to give flare effect. All skirts are full. Many of them are gathered in different manners so as to give the fullness graceful lines.

Among the other styles that will be seen this season are cape effects and full box coats. These creations are very charming.

Another novel idea is the use of jersey cloth in vivid colors for suits. These were originally intended for sport wear but are now adopted to street wear.

We Welcome the Kayser

It is not the German Kaiser. We cannot say just how we would welcome him. We are neutral!

The "Kayser" we speak of we heartily welcome and so will you. It is the Kayser line of Silk Gloves, Hosiery and Italian Silk Underwear.

If you have used any of this brand of goods you know its merits. If you haven't we can recommend it to be the most dependable in America.

It's superiority is recognized throughout the entire country. Large stores all the United States feature it—stores like Wanamaker of Philadelphia and New York, Marshal Fields of Chicago and Pogue of Cincinnati offer it to their trade.

See the new Italian Silk Hosiery of this make. Our Kayser Silk Underwear is the utmost in dainty luxuriousness. The double tipped Silk Glove has no equal.

REMEMBER IT'S OLDHAM'S THAT'S HEAD-QUARTERS FOR KAYSER'S GOODS.

Dressy Models in Waists

Voiles and Organdies Embroidered, Crepe-de-chine Georgette Crepe and Wash Silks in Stripes. See the special assortments of Crepe-de-chine and Wash Silks for $1.98 and $2.48. Many exclusive and dressy models of Georgette and Lace.

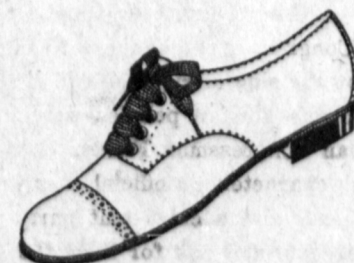

Silks Are Scarce

We bought an unusually large supply of Silks of every description early. The advance in price quoted now would make them out of the average person's reach. You will see a large assortment in a variety of patterns at the OLDHAM STORE. You will find the silk you are looking for at the price you want to pay.

See our patterns in all wool checks for skirts. Checks are extra good. Be sure and see these.

Men's Spring Styles

in Nettleton and Kneeland Low and High Shoes

We have recently added the famous line of Nettleton Shoes to our new Shoe Department. Give Us a Try, Men! Once a Customer—Always a Customer.

To Be Well Dressed

Your Feet Must Be Neatly and Stylishly Clad.

Your Spring Slipper should be selected with care and thought. Much depends upon their fit and style. The evidence of a slightly longer skirt and an early spring tends to make slippers, rather than boots, the most advisable purchase.

Your slipper this spring should be a neater and more conservative order than the past season's styles.

Beautiful plain pumps in patent and dull leather, some with small tongue effects. Strap effects will be good.

The season's most popular novelty will be Pearl Grey Kid. Following this in popularity will be White Washable Kid, Bronze and Havana Brown Kid.

An unusual novelty in patents this season is the Priscilla-Pump. Ask to see it in our department. White will be employed extensively in footwear in a variety of materials.

You will find all of these and more too in our new Shoe Department. You will find the shoe you want and one to fit you. We carry all widths. We have added to our department the Zeigler line and that famous line of Fox light weight footery. We also have Satin Slippers to match the exact shade of your costumes.

Oldham's Shoe Department is the most up-to-date in town. You get Shoes of better service at a less price. Every shoe bought of OLDHAM'S has got to make good.

See These Shirts

Children's Shoes That Wear

We are specialists on Children's Shoes for both service and looks. Let us fit the children. We will give them shoes that look better—wear better, for less money.

YELLOW JOURNALISM

The effort of the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times to injure the good name and spotless reputation of Senator J. C. W. Beckham failed last week, as all such efforts should fail, when the facts were made known. We refer to the manner in which they handled the interview of Col. E. H. Taylor, Jr., the millionaire distiller, made necessary by the affidavit of Hon. Elwood Hamilton, Representative from Franklin county, in which the latter said in substance that Col. Taylor had furnished $25,000 in behalf of Mr. Stanley in his races for Senator and Governor. Without specifically denying the statement of Mr. Hamilton, either under oath or otherwise, Col. Taylor, in his interview said in substance that he had contributed to Senator Beckham's campaign fund.

These two journals, ever ready to throw mud at Senator Beckham, featured the Taylor interview in bold black headlines "Beckham, not Stanley, got whisky aid."

As a matter of fact, as stated by Mr. Crawford Lee, who acted as Treasurer of the Campaign Fund, Col. Taylor gave the enormous sum of $25.00 to assist in defraying the expenses of local headquarters during the fall election when Mr. Beckham was on the ticket as the nominee for United States Senator and as Mr. Lee says there was practically no opposition to Senator Beckham in that county and there was no occasion for spending money in his behalf.

The incident, however, merely serves to show how far some people will go in an effort to destroy those whom they cannot control, but try as they may, they cannot shake the faith of the people of Kentucky in the belief that Senator Beckham is today one of the cleanest men in public life. For nearly a quarter of a century his political enemies have searched in vain for a black spot on him.

HON. WILLIAM J. FIELDS

Hon. W. J. Fields, of Olive Hill, authorizes us to announce his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this, the Ninth Congressional District, at the August primary, 1916.

For the past several years, Mr. Fields has served this district efficiently and faithfully in the National Congress, responding to nearly every roll call and has always voted upon the side of right and justice. In the recent struggle, in which the President's foreign policies were in the balance, he had no more loyal friend than Congressman Fields.

As a gentleman of integrity and high character, an official ever watchful of the best interests of his constituents and a consistent party man, we present his claims to his fellow-Democrats and ask for them the careful consideration to which they are unquestionably entitled.

TOO MUCH FOR STRANGER

Evidently Was Not Built to Appreciate Such Terrible Bursts of Artistic Feeling.

"Isn't it wonderful—the death of day, the glory of the slowly purpling sky?"

"Yea-us," said the stranger.

"Hush! Can you not hear the night song of the birds? How charming! Hilary sat beside the man. 'We two in the gloaming and all else afar,' said Hilary; 'what a privilege we must count so sacred an hour as this, when one may gaze upon the evening sky and lift up one's soul to the firmament itself!'"

The stranger stirred uneasily. "And tomorrow, day will dawn—the sun will stream upon the fair land; flowers will blossom, and in the forests soft winds will gently sigh and—"

"Yea-us," said the stranger. "Have you never," confidentially inquired Hilary, "have you never wandered in the wood, and found a pellucid stream, and removed your foot-wear and permitted your pink toes to sink within the limpid water?"

"I got stuck in a swamp once." The stranger pulled his drooping mustache savagely; his voice was hoarse.

Hilary gazed rapturously at the sky; zigzag streaks of saffron scarlet were fading, fading into the night. He spoke of it to the stranger.

At last Hilary rose. "I shall see you in the bright and beautiful morning," he said; "possibly we may stroll in the fragrant fields together? Good-night!"

"Good-night." The heavy-set stranger with the plaid vest strode to the desk and said to the clerk, "What's the penalty for killin' in this state?"

"Electrocution."

"What time does the first train goin' west leave in the mornin'?"

"Six twenty."

"Gimme my bill, an' call me at 5:45 sharp."—Judge.

WAS FIRST SILVER WEDDING

Now Popular Ceremony Said to Have Originated Through a Whim of Monarch of France.

The fashion of silver weddings dates back to the reign of Hugues Capet, king of France, in 987. Once as Hugues was arranging his uncle's affairs he found on one of the estates a servant who had grown gray in the service of his relative. On the farm with this old man was also a serving woman, who was as old as he and also unmarried, who had been the most devoted and hardworking of the woman servants of the king's uncle. When the king heard these praises of the two he ordered them to be brought before him and said to the woman:

"Your service is great, greater than this man's, whose services were great enough, for the woman always finds work and obedience harder than a man, and therefore I will give you a reward. At your age I know of none better than a dowry and a husband."

"The dowry is here—this farm from this time forth belongs to you. If this man who has worked with you five and twenty years is willing to marry you then the husband is ready."

"Your majesty," stammered the old peasant confusedly, "how is it possible that we should marry, having already silver hairs?"

"Then it shall be a silver wedding," answered the king, "and here I give you a wedding ring," drawing a costly ring from his finger and placing the hands of the thankful old people together.

This soon became known all over France, and raised such enthusiasm that it became a fashion after 25 years of married life to celebrate a silver wedding.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Woman's Attitude Toward Law.

In most cases woman is lawless; she will obey the law because she is afraid of it, but she will not respect it. For her it is always sic volo, sic jubeo. I suspect that if she had had a share in making the law she would not have been like this, for she would have become aware of the relation between law and life. Roughly she tends to look upon the law as tyrannous if she does not like it, as protective if she does like it. Probably there is little relation between her own moral impulse, which is generous, and the law, which is only just. (That is, just in intention.) This is qualified by the moral spirit in woman, which increasingly leads her to the view that certain things should be done and others not be done. But even then it is likely that at heart woman does not respect the law; she may respect what it represents—strength—but not what it implies—equity. She is infinitely more rebellious than man, and where she has power she inflames the world in protest. I do not refer to the militant suffragists, but to woman's general attitude.—W. L. George, in the Atlantic.

My Lord, the Elephant.

Recently an old circus man recounted a personal experience of an elephant's intelligence in obtaining what it wanted.

When feeding it with potatoes, which the animal had been taking from his hand, the animal failed to secure one which rolled just out of the reach of its trunk.

Contemplating the situation for a few seconds, he blew a gust of wind against the potato, causing it to rebound against the wall, and thus to come within reach.

NEVER TRUST TO LUCK

The man who is always waiting for something to turn up will wait a life-time, be dependent upon relatives or friends, cared for by charity. This trusting to luck theory has ruined more useful lives than the world will ever know of. Success in life is mostly won by men who trust in themselves and leave the elements of mere chance to gamblers and failures.

He was a wise man who said that in life, as in all nature, there are no rewards and no punishments, but only consequences.

The law of cause and effect is operating everywhere, and as surely in matters of apparent chance as in those of unmistakable certainty.

Some men entertain an idea that they can hitch their wagon to a star and all will be well. It would be far more sensible if they would hitch their wagon to a mule and go to work. The poor institutions of the country and the jails are filled with just such imprudent fools.

Luck is the fiction which failures have invented to explain the success of others and why they have not succeeded themselves. Luck has about as much to do with success as the color of a farmer's hair has to do with the yield of his cotton crop. Luck is a term used by too many men to cover up their ignorance of all the attendant circumstances. You have got to earn your bread by the sweat of your brow. You might as well make up your mind to this, quit trifling with your chances in life and get busy before it is too late.

Trust to luck too long and you will find your feet tottering toward the poorhouse. "Men are the sport of circumstances when circumstances are the sport of men," said the poet Byron, but that is all a fanciful interpretation of human events. There are people in this world who are always expecting to get something for nothing. Such people are the victims that confidence men are always looking for. You can have far more in this world than most of us, but you pay the price for it. Before you start out to want a thing, stop and make absolutely certain that you want it so badly that you will be prepared to make any and every sacrifice to get it. More than half the time men fail not because they lack ability, but because they thought that nature's luck-bag was going to open and drop the coveted prize at their feet. If you want a thing, go after it and get it.

Any Person Can Buy Hardware

But it is not everyone who knows whether it is good or bad until after they have used it. And right there is just a small portion of the wisdom of buying hardware at our store. We know that most people must rely upon what we tell them about the quality of the goods, hence we make it a principle in business never to sell an article that we do not know to be O. K. in every respect. It is the safe way and our way.

Isn't there something you need in making life more comfortable during the winter months? Undoubtedly we have it and can sell it to you at a very close price. No house in this section ever undersells us on guaranteed hardware.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

One woman in every five can vote for the President of the United States.

"On Thursday of the past week," says the Sioux City Daily News of February 25th, "with 2,400 men of the Sioux City packing houses out on a strike, not a single arrest was made for drunkenness, and not a single evidence of violence was noted." Reason: The saloons are closed.

In the first three weeks in January, during the dry period in Seat-tie, the savings deposits in the banks increased fifteen per cent.

Twelve thousand employees in the city of Philadelphia have been informed that they will be immediately discharged if they drink during working hours or show any evidence of liquor drinking when they report.

Recruits for the United States Army are no longer boarded at a hotel where liquors are served.

"Whether they wish it or not,
men are today divided into camps.
The one fights, by word and by example, against the useless custom of drinking a poison; the other, by word and example is equally the defender of this poison."—Tolstoi.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue reports that 810,503 gallons of moonshine liquor were confiscated by government officials last year. Of this amount only 1,582 gallons were seized in prohibition states—in Arizona, Georgia, North Carolina and Tennessee, and in the prohibition states of Maine, Kansas, North Dakota, Oklahoma and West Virginia, not one gallon. Nearly 807,000 gallons were seized in wet states.

In Denver, during the first ten days of 1915 there were 401 arrests for crime of all kinds; during the same period this year, only 149 arrests—a decrease of 252.

Oak Park, a dry suburb of Chicago, is rejoicing in a substantial decrease of its tax rate. On the same actual value, Chicago tax is about fourteen cents higher than the Oak Park rate.

At its meeting in Great Falls, the Montana State Grange took a strong position in favor of prohibition and pledged itself to work for a dry state.

Last year Kansas savings deposits show an increase of $16,000,000.

In a recent medical statement it was shown that in 572 cases of epileptics a greater percentage was produced by alcoholic parents than by epileptic and insane parents combined.

A few days ago, Senator William Thompson, of Kansas, referred to the fact in Congress that his sixteen-year old boy and eighteen-year-old daughter had never seen a saloon or breathed a liquor-contaminated atmosphere until upon his election to Congress he changed the family residence to Washington.
Our Senators and Representatives should hear every day from the advocates of the District of Columbia Bill.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

It will be a matter of interest to many to know that Dr. E. L. South-fifty years of active work in the ministry. Comparatively few men have so long a term of active service as this; and even fewer have served as faithfully as has Dr.

Southgate.

It so happens that at this same time Rev. Clyde Darsie, pastor of the Christian church, rounds out a ministry of twenty years. These two ministers with their congregations are arranging a joint celebration of this anniversary at the Christian church Sunday night. An

JUMPS IN WELL

Worry over domestic troubles was the cause last week of the suicide of Mrs. Ella Green, widow of Thomas Greene, at her home near Levee. Since the death of her husband and with an invalid daughter to support life's battle had been going hard and to end it all and find solace in grim eternity, the overwrought woman, with the protesting cries of her unfortunate daughter ringing in her ears, rushed to an old well near her humble home and jumped in. The cries of the girl attracted the attention of passers-by but when they reached the well the woman was beyond human aid. Neighbors took the body in charge and buried it at Levee, and efforts are being made to care for the invalid orphan. Mrs. Green was about fifty-five years of age and is survived by another daughter whose whereabouts are not known. The case of the unfortunate woman has aroused deepest sympathy and sadness.

HOME

Home should be made the most interesting and the best loved spot on earth, not merely four square walls of wood and brick; it should be the foundation of civilization, the very word should touch every fiber of the soul, and strike every cord of the human heart with its angelic fingers, a place where that is centralized on the higher and better things of life, bringing forth in the highways and byways an influence that will be felt by all with whom it comes in contact. It should be a place where the heart is, a place where our feet may leave, but not our hearts, a place, where angels unfold their wings, the place we love best, because it is the place where mother is.

DIES IN COUNTY

Mrs. Nancy Caroline Byrd, widow of Joseph Byrd, died at the home of her son, Mr. W. F. Byrd, with whom she resided on the Owingsville pike, last week of pneumonia. The burial took place in Machpelah cemetery with brief services at the grave. The death of Mrs. Byrd occasions deep sorrow to many friends. She was a native of Virginia, and a Miss Catron before her marriage. Mrs. Byrd was in her eighty-fourth year and had been a resident of this county for more than half a century, having come here with her husband and family following the War of Sections. She united with the Methodist church in girlhood and had her membership transferred from the Old Dominion to this city some years ago, and had always been a conscientious follower of the Man of Galilee. Her husband died over twenty-five years ago and of her children only her son, Mr. W. F. Byrd survives, together with several brothers and sisters in Virginia, Ohio and Tennessee.

UNABLE TO HELP FIGHT

Miss Marian Williamson, of Frankfort, representative of the State Tuberculosis Commission, and Dr. W. R. Thompson addressed the City Council last Tuesday night and asked for an annual appropriation of $300 to assist in the fight against the spread of the dread disease in this county. The Council refused to make the appropriation on the grounds that street and other necessary improvements would make a big drain on the treasury the coming year. Aside from making settlements with the various officers very little important business was transacted.

Boarders Wanted

I take this method of notifying the public that I am prepared to take table boarders, also roomers. Terms upon application. My house is centrally located, being on North Maysville street.

A FAITHFUL FRIEND

The best friend a man has in the world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter, that he has reared with loving care, may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud upon our heads.

The one absolutely unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful, or treacherous, is his dog. A man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer. He will lick the wounds and sores that come from encounter with the roughness of the world, he guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert, he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces, he is constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens. If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight his enemies.

"And when the last scene of all comes and death takes the master in its embrace and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by the gravestone will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even in death."

FORMERLY LIVED IN THIS CITY

A message was received here last week by Mr. W. R. Maupin announcing the death of Mrs. Edwin Gilbert, which occurred recently at her home in Los Angeles, Cal., following a short illness. The news will be learned here with deepest grief by many old friends of the deceased. She was about twenty-nine years of age and before her marriage was Miss Eily McIntosh. Though her home was in Kansas City, her childhood was spent in Mt. Sterling with Mr. and Mrs. Maupin, where she attended school.

She left here several years ago and married Mr. Gilbert and had since made her home in Los Angeles. Last summer she visited Mr. and Mrs. Maupin and renewed many old friendships. Besides her husband she is survived by three children, one a baby daughter of three weeks.

POPULAR AUCTIONEERS TO RETURN NEXT SEASON

Many local people, and tobacco men in particular, will be pleased to learn that Mr. A. J. Bray and Mr. William Hussey, popular auctioneers, who have cried the local markets the past few years, are to return again next season. Mr. Bray has officiated at the Whitehall and Robertson houses and Mr. Hussey at the Farmers. Both last week signed a contract for next year. Mr. Bray and his charming wife have made many friends during their stay here and Mr. Hussey's popularity increases every year. Many well wishes will accompany them to their homes in North Carolina when they leave next week.

Kentucky Fair Circuit Formed.

The Kentucky fair circuit was organized at Winchester last Thursday at a meeting of between twenty-five and thirty fair secretaries, directors and trotting horse-men. A. W. Young, director of the Shelbyville Fair, was elected president, and A. W. Shirley, secretary of the Sanders Fair, was elected secretary of the circuit. Nine fairs were admitted to the circuit and there are a number of others being considered with the prospects of there being eleven in the circuit.

The circuit will open at Mt. Sterling July 19 to 22; from there will go to Winchester, July 26 to 29; then comes Berea from August 3 to 5, after which the circuit goes to Sanders, Eminence, Ewing, Shelbyville, Falmouth and Grayson. The dates for the last named towns have not been definitely decided upon. The meeting was an enthusiastic one a number of optimistic speeches were made. A committee composed of Mayor D. T. Matlack, of Winchester; J. E. Johnson, of Berea, and J. D. Greenwade, of Mt. Sterling, was appointed to formulate a uniform racing program for the entire circuit and report back to the association on or before April 1st.

Oh, if you would gather all the tender memories, all the lights and shadows of the heart, all banquetings and reunions, all filial, fraternal, paternal and conjugal affections, and you have only just four letters with which to spell out that height, and depth, and length, and breadth, and magnitude, and eternity of meaning, you would, with streaming eyes, and trembling voice, and agitated hand, write it out in those four living capitals, H-O-M-E.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

John St. Clair's clock has run down again. Somehow this clock has never been able to keep up with the progress of time, and has caused John and his family a lot of uneasiness and inconvenience. On one occasion it got so far behind it caused John to miss planting his potato crop altogether.

"Skinney" Elliston was pretty badly used up in a dog fight in front of the postoffice this morning.

The postmaster has received a letter with no name and address on it. He would like for the person it is intended for to please call and get it within five days.

Art Shives is back from a trip to the village of Buzzard Knob, where he went to find out what Jack Goodine paid for a cow he has been trying to sell for nine dollars.

Jack Smith had the first chill of the season Wednesday morning. Jack takes pride in getting ahead in every undertaking in this community and is being praised on this occasion by his many friends. At the outstart he will, it is expected, have the seven day variety of chills, but later when work gets more plentiful he will drop back to the regulation every other day kind.

The Holler moonshine still house has received an order from several of our leading citizens for a special brand of liquor that is to be handed out when they are serenaded by the Violin Fiddling Band. The liquor, it is believed, will contain a large per cent. of chloroform.

Bob Houghton and Seward Erickson were arrested last Sunday by the Deputy Constable Doc Walz of a charge of engaging in a fight at the front door of the Coon Holler church. The difficulty started over a dispute as to who should drink first at the cistern. Bob walked up and took up a gourd of water and asked Seward to have a drink. Seward says "No, you go ahead and drink first." And Bob says "No beauty before age—you go ahead and drink." The argument continued for about ten minutes in this fashion before blows were struck. In the meantime several dozen bystanders were anxiously waiting their turn at the cistern bucket.

Jack May and Archie Ledgerwood will entertain with a game of seven-up in the fence corner behind the old stump at the prong of the Panther creek road Wednesday evening. The best of order will be had.

Row Brown is convalescent after having encountered seven or eight hard chills, and is devoting his time in contemplation of making a fourth step in a matrimonial direction. He has his nuptial eye focused on a widow near Rattlesnake Ford and has the Deputy Constable investigating her past married life.

WE NEED A MAN

The reason why so many of us fail to achieve greater success in life is because we do not exert the necessary will power to accomplish more definite results.

Look over the people of this town. Study their habits, their speech, and their accomplishments. You will find many of them who undoubtedly possess an enormous reserve of will power. Their every word and action indicates as much. But there is a perceptible disposition to hesitate which prevents the bringing of that reserve force actively into play. The natural result is that they are only moderately successful when they should be rising to great heights.

In this our people are in no respect different from those of other places and other climes. It is a trait of human nature and will survive until the end of the human race.

Occasionally we read or hear of some great man who began life in an humble way. If you could look down deep into the soul of that man you would see that he is just a human being like the rest of us, with this exception. He has fought and conquered the retarder, hesitancy, and has brought into full action the will power that lies dormant in a majority of people. His normal mind perceives an opportunity and his will and determination force him to grasp it. The result is success. The world hears of him while the rest of us live and die in the peaceful obscurity of our own little circles.

There are those among us who have in them the making of men and women of national note, but hesitancy dogs their steps. Their feeble minds see the opportunities ahead of them, but hesitancy whispers to them to wait, and while they are waiting opportunity marches on. It pauses for no man.

This town is overflowing with brains, but most of them are lying dormant, working only as necessity requires.

As a community we need an awakening. We need a revival of will power and of determination. We need a big boot that will lift hesitation and procrastination into eternal oblivion and forgetfulness. We need action.

But above all we need a commercial pastor for the flock. We need a man who has fought and conquered hesitancy, who is achieving success himself, who will take us by the hand and lead us into the way of accomplishment and results. We need a leader who can lead.

A TEST WHETHER ADVERTISING PAYS

In talking recently with a man who has had a large success as an advertising salesman in another place, this question was asked him: "When a merchant says it does not pay to advertise, what do you tell him?"

"I just ask him this," was the reply. "What proportion of the population of this town has been inside your store during the past two months?"

"Very few merchants ever claim they have had ten per cent. of the population. Most of the non-advertisers would be glad to get one per cent. A lot of them probably get only a small fraction of one per cent. with any regularity."

"Then I say, how are all the rest of the people going to know about your goods? How can they tell whether it would be for their advantage to patronize you or not? If you have good values, or special bargains how do they know about it? A great many of them rarely ever pass your store. The great majority that pass give you only a glance. You are not getting their business, having done nothing to interest them."

"Then I go on," he continued, "to say there are just two ways to get some of this trade now slipping past them. They can send around solicitors from door to door, distributing circulars or hand bills, or advertise in newspapers. The newspaper notice is read carefully where a solicitor is summarily turned down, and besides the advertising is 20 times cheaper than canvassing. And hand bills are chucked into the waste baskets, while newspapers are read. If you don't care to use any of these methods, I tell them, most of the people of this city will continue to pass you by, without knowing anything about your goods."

These remarks fit here as well as the town where they were made. A merchant must tell the public about his goods in order to get trade.
